

INTEGRATED HEALTHCARE STRATEGIES™

Mr. Rice is a Executive Vice President and Practice Leader of the Physician Services practice at Integrated Healthcare Strategies. He has over twenty-five years of healthcare operations and consulting experience to include administrative positions in acute care, long term care, and physician practice management.

BIO

Mr. Rice specializes in the areas of physician compensation, acquisition and integration. Mr. Rice has concentrated his consulting in the areas of designing income distribution plans for primary care, specialty, sub-specialty physicians and physician extenders. In addition, he assists clients in structuring physician affiliation models, e.g., direct employment versus professional service agreements.

Mr. Rice has extensive consulting experience in communicating to Boards and senior management the challenges of integrating physicians' practices into hospital and healthcare systems. As a past healthcare administrator in multi-specialty and academic sub-specialty physician practice settings, Mr. Rice has the ability to communicate these challenges to physicians.

Mr. Rice has a B.S. in Public Administration from the University of Wisconsin – La Crosse and an MBA specializing in healthcare from the College of St. Thomas.
